

THE 2012 UMPQUA BANK CHALLENGE

Tournament Internship Opportunities

Internship Description

June 18 – September 7

Peter Jacobsen SPORTS is looking for motivated and detail-oriented interns to assist with tournament-related projects. Strong interpersonal and organizational skills are required for these positions. Excellent phone skills and the ability to facilitate multiple requests are also necessary. Experience with Word and Excel is required. Knowledge of Access, InDesign and Social Media platforms is preferred.

These positions will entail support of the existing tournament staff, including but not limited to the Executive Director, Director of Communications, Director of Sales, Tournament Manager and Sponsor Services Coordinator. Duties will include, but are not limited to ticket/credential fulfillment, preparation of sponsor materials, assistance with the coordination of special events, assistance with the volunteer program, assistance with the production of tournament collateral pieces and on-site tournament support as needed.

About The Umpqua Bank Challenge

For 17 years (1986-2002), The Challenge was the most talked-about and highly anticipated professional golf event in the Northwest. It's immediate and long-term success were a direct result of the culture that was embedded into the event from day one by tournament host, Peter Jacobsen: fun and creative vision combined with genuine relationships and stellar execution.

In 2011, Peter Jacobsen SPORTS partnered with Umpqua Bank to bring a Challenge-style event back to the City of Portland. In it's inaugural year The Umpqua Bank Challenge raised $100,000 for non-profit partners Randall Children's Hospital at Legacy Emanuel and "I Have a Dream" Foundation – Oregon. The 2012 tournament will be played August 26-28 at The Reserve Vineyards & Golf Club in Aloha, Oregon, and will again feature the Regence Pro-Am on Sunday and a two-day team competition on Monday and Tuesday featuring 12 of the world's best PGA TOUR and Champions Tour professionals.
